

ONE DRUM

Around the World in 50 Minutes

Julio Pabon, Jahmes Finlayson, David Stocker, and Jeff Green in Egypt.

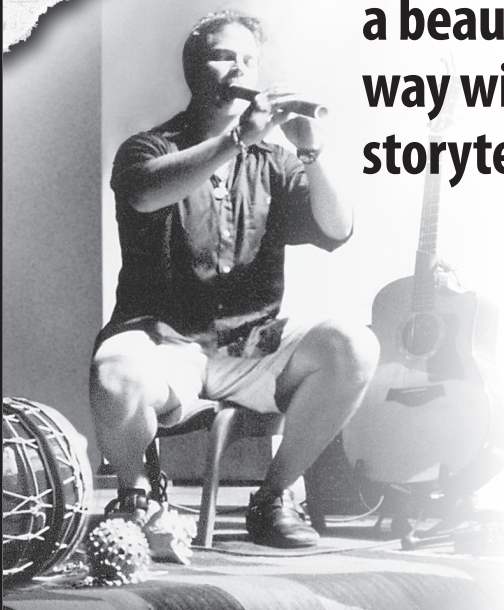

One Drum is an eclectic multi-cultural ensemble which performs songs, stories and dances rooted in the cultures of Africa, the Caribbean, Australia, the Middle East and the Americas.

One Drum engages audiences with call and response, sing along, dance, and hands-on drumming.

Other One Drum assemblies for all ages:

- International Days of Peace
- A Journey through the Music of Latin America
- It Takes a Village

“You have a beautiful way with storytelling.”

“I would recommend One Drum to anyone!”

DAVID STOCKER

Artist in Residence

Let me create a unique cultural event with a residency or assembly based on the popular Origins of Music curriculum.

Solo & Duo Programs

- Stories of Who We Are Musical tales from many cultures
- Instrument making workshops
All students build simple percussion, melodic, and wind instruments for a “Gathering of the Tribes” assembly
- Bali to Brooklyn
Shadow Puppets with Dan McGuire
- Business is Booming
Build a set of “green” Tubano drums to be a permanent part of the music program
- Woody Guthrie to Bob Marley
Songs of the People with Jan Sebon

originsofmusic@gmail.com

815.519.7599

www.davidstocker.net